FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

DEMONE ALEXANDER,

Plaintiff,

v.

MICHAEL MEISNER, et al.,

Defendants.

---

ORDER

Case No. 14-cv-45-wmc

Plaintiff Demone Alexander, a prisoner incarcerated at the Columbia Correctional Institution in Portage, Wisconsin, has submitted a proposed civil action under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. With the exception of habeas corpus proceedings, the fee for civil actions filed after May 1, 2013 is $400.00 unless a litigant qualifies as indigent under 28 U.S.C. § 1915, in which case the fee is $350.00. Plaintiff has filed a certified copy of his inmate trust fund account statement along with a “motion to withdraw filing fee from prison release account.” (Dkt. ##2,3). After considering plaintiff’s trust fund account statement, the court concludes that plaintiff qualifies for indigent status, however he will not be allowed to use his release account funds to pay the entire $350 as discussed briefly below.

Even when a prisoner litigant qualifies for indigent status, he must pay a portion of the fee returned by the formula set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1). According to this formula, a prisoner litigant must prepay 20% of the greater of the average monthly balance or the average monthly deposits made to his prison account in the six-month period immediately preceding the filing of the complaint.

In this case, 20% of the average monthly deposits to his account is $5.17, but 20% of the average monthly balance in his account is $235.00. Because the greater of the two amounts is 20% of the average monthly balance, or $235.00, that is the amount plaintiff will be assessed as an initial partial payment of the filing fee. For this case to proceed, plaintiff must submit this amount on or before February 18, 2014.

If plaintiff does not have the money to make the initial partial payment in his regular account, he will have to arrange with prison authorities to pay some or all of the assessment from his release account. This does not mean that plaintiff is free to ask prison authorities to pay all of his filing fee from his release account. The only amount plaintiff must pay at this time is the $235.00 initial partial payment. Before prison officials take any portion of that amount from plaintiff's release account, they may first take from plaintiff's regular account whatever amount up to the amount plaintiff owes.

Regarding plaintiff's motion to use his inmate release account to pay the entire filing fee, the federal in forma pauperis statute suggests that prison officials are required to use a prisoner's release account to satisfy an initial partial payment if no other funds are available. Carter v. Bennett, 399 F. Supp. 2d 936, 936-37 (W.D. Wis. 2005). However, with the exception of such initial partial payments, it is within the state's discretion to decide whether, and to what extent, a prisoner should be able to withdraw money from his release account. Because the state has not authorized plaintiff to use his release account funds to pay the entire $350 filing fee, plaintiff's motion will be denied. However, if sufficient funds do not exist in plaintiff's regular account to pay his initial partial payment, he should be allowed to use his release account to pay some or all of the assessed amount. Plaintiff should show a copy of this order to prison officials to insure that they are aware they should send plaintiff's initial partial payment to this court.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that,

1. Plaintiff Demone Alexander is assessed $235.00 as an initial partial payment of the $350 fee for filing this case. He is to submit a check or money order made payable to the clerk of court in the amount of $235.00 on or before February 18, 2014.

2. If, by February 18, 2014, plaintiff fails to make the initial partial payment or show cause for his failure to do so, he will be held to have withdrawn this action voluntarily and the case will be closed without prejudice to plaintiff's filing his case at a later date.

3. Plaintiff's motion to use his release account to pay the entire filing fee in this case, dkt. #2, is DENIED. The only amount plaintiff must pay at this time is the $235.00 initial partial payment. Before prison officials take any portion of that amount from plaintiff's release account, they may first take from plaintiff's regular account whatever amount up to the full amount plaintiff owes.

Entered this 27th day of January, 2014.
